Sunday Family Connection

Families are places of beginnings. Within our family, we first learn what it means to be part of a community. We share a closeness and experience mutual understanding and support. We learn how to love one another, how to ask for and receive forgiveness, and how to apply all these lessons to the world outside our homes.

As you gather as a family, talk about what makes your family special. Share some of the lessons you have learned together about love, forgiveness, and understanding. Then read today's Gospel, Mark 3:20-35. Jesus wants us to understand that by doing God's will, we are part of a bigger family. Choosing to follow Jesus, being his disciple, means we must treat one another with kindness and mercy. We must become a family. Conclude by asking God to bless your family and to help you do God's will by seeing all his people with the same kind of love and compassion. Pray together the Lord's Prayer and the Hail Mary.

This is Sacred Heart Church QR code for online giving. You may start using it now to make it more convenient for everyone. Thank you for your generosity.

No Prayer is more powerful than the Mass, and there is no greater way to show our love for our dead than to have Masses said for them.

This is the ancient teaching of the Church.

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention (anniversary, birthday, thanksgiving, answered prayers or for someone who has died, please contact the Parish Office and we will be happy to assist you in finding a date. The suggested stipend for a Mass is $10.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please Read!

Sacred Heart

We are still getting emails going to our old email address. Please remember that our email is now "sacredheart2411@gmail.com"

Our website is "sacredheartchurchtillamook.org". These are also on the front page of our Bulletin.

Fraud emails using Father Angelo's email:

If Father Angelo needs anything from anyone, he will not text you or email you. He will call you. Please don't respond to any emails asking for gift cards or any other requests.

Cemetery Maintenance:

Thank you to all who helped in cleaning the cemetery! We have received quite a few compliments as to how nice it looks. Thank you to Patrick and Christina Maahs and Family, Jim Munly, Carole Collecknon, Tino Rodriguez and Lonnie Jenck. Your help is truly appreciated.

We're still looking for additional volunteers to help with lawn maintenance and mowing at the cemetery. We're hoping to add more people to our rotation. If you are interested please reach out to Pat Maahs at 503-812-7890 or Christina Maahs at 503-812-8689. If you have any questions let Christina Maahs know.

St. Joseph Parish

Thank you to everyone at St. Joseph's for helping and contributing to last month's fundraiser for the Showers Foundation. Between the silent auction, plant sale, quilt raffle and ice cream social and with some very generous contributions we managed to collect $1070.

Jaraysa Sammar's Message: We will be having olive wood carvings available to purchase after all masses. The proceeds are to support Christian Catholic families in the Holy Land since it is the major source of income for them there. More than 75 families in Bethlehem Hand carved these items. They are very beautiful and unique items- Nativities, Crucifixes, Rosaries, Statues. The Christian population has dropped from 22% to less than 2% in the past two decades. And this is a way to support them to stay there. Thank you in advance for your support.

Kinfolk

The Gospel for this 10th Sunday of Ordinary Time can be puzzling.

For instance:

Jesus is preaching, but his "relatives" come to "seize" him because "he is out of his mind." (Mark 3:21) Picture it. Who are these relatives? They seem to be identified as "his mother and his brothers"! This raises the question whether Jesus actually had brothers and sisters, and whether they, and Mary, the blessed mother, think that he is crazy!

First, did Jesus actually have brothers and sisters in our present-day sense? There are many theories, and this is one:

In Semitic usage, the terms "brother," "sister" are applied not only to children of the same parents, but to nephews, nieces, cousins, half-brothers, and half-sisters.*

So, going by this alternative, Jesus had cousins and other kin. Do you remember his pregnant mother's trip to see her cousin, Elizabeth? Today children of "first cousins" are called "second cousins," but they would have qualified as brothers and sisters in ancient Semitic usage. Jesus would not be different from other Nazarenes in this regard. Nor would there be a contradiction to anything central to the faith.

Second, could it be that his "mother and his brothers" were among those who thought of him as "out of his mind"? The Gospel of Mark asserts only the following:

His mother and his brothers arrived. Standing outside they sent word to him and called [for] him (Gospel).

Perhaps this was just familial interest on their part instead of a desire to "seize him" and carry him away. Conclusion: we do not have to think that his mother was being critical of Jesus when she arrived with other relatives.

Third: but now, Jesus seems to totally ignore his family. Hearing that they are calling out to him, Jesus says, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers." (Gospel)

Some have taken this speech as Jesus rejecting Mary and his other relatives. Actually it is a statement of Jesus' mission. He is showing that the most important reason for life is the love of God and of one's neighbors, as opposed to the easy and presumably self-enclosed way of staying home where relatives will take care of you. Growth in the biblical kind of love must come from God.

As Jesus says: "whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." He is widening our life-search to include others, not indeed instead of the family but including the family in the overall purpose of life itself: letting in the love of God and passing it along to everyone we know.

Fourth, we have now discovered the meaning of Jesus' words, whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin.

Sounds severe, but it is just repeating the message of love. If a person or a society turns against (blasphemes against) the Holy Spirit of God, they will have shut off the very source of love. As we have seen repeatedly, Christians discovered the Trinity of God by seeing it played out in this world: the love of the Father for the Son, together with the loving inclusion of everything in existence, which is the Holy Spirit.
