Sunday Family Connections

Pentecost is sometimes called the birthday of the Church. The Gospel for Pentecost reminds us that the Church begins with the command to forgive. Within the family, the domestic Church, we learn how to forgive and we learn to accept forgiveness. It is the gift of the Holy Spirit that enables us to do both. Today is a fitting time to share a family celebration of reconciliation.

As you gather together as a family, sit quietly for a few minutes, inviting all to reflect upon their need to forgive and to receive forgiveness. If there is a situation or issue within the family that needs attention, spend some time reflecting upon the concern and how your family might address it. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:19-23. Talk together about how Jesus gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us in the work of forgiveness and to bring us peace. Pray together today's psalm, or the Prayer to the Holy Spirit, asking that the Holy Spirit help your family. Share with one another the sign of peace.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society would like to expand their membership and in hopes of more women of the parish joining their meetings, and are asking women of the parish if an occasional evening meeting would help them to participate. Please respond to Stjosephcloverdale@gmail.com. St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church Cemetery

Do you have a loved one buried at the cemetery, have a few hours a month to spare or love lending a helping hand?

With limited hands helping, it's making a lot of work for the few that do. Can you donate a couple of hours a month to help mow? Riding lawnmower awaits you! We'd love to hear from you! Contact Christina Maahs at 503-812-8689 or hit us up at church. We'd appreciate the help!

Faith Formation:

Please pray for our Faith Formation students who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. Confirmation will take place in Astoria on Tuesday June 10th at 6:30 pm.

Spirituality of the Readings -
Pentecost Sunday
June 1, 2025

The Holy Spirit

Sunday is the feast, at last, of the Holy Spirit. What is this famous presence we have heard Jesus promise for weeks? May I give you some "points," just as a retreat director would do during a retreat?

Set a time for your prayer, please. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you as you pray. Use as much from the following for prayer as you want and disregard the rest.

Preliminaries:

Remember that you will be praying in the presence of God, the one who watches over you and loves you by name. Sit quietly, with as much patience as you can.

Ask, "What does the Holy Spirit mean to me?"

To some people the Holy Spirit is the one who causes them to be "slain in the Spirit." Others know it as some being connected with the Trinity. What do you believe?

Many folks have no idea.

Point One:

In the Gospel, Jesus says that the Father is going to send "the Advocate, the Holy Spirit," to us in his name. The English word advocate is derived from the Latin (which has ad plus voco, meaning "to speak to"). So, the Holy Spirit speaks for us, on our behalf. We have many translations of that Greek word. It is also rendered as "Paraclete," "intercessor," "teacher," "helper," and "comforter." All such English words refer to someone who is called upon to aid another person and to defend them!

The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words. (Romans 8:26).

Ponder the Holy Spirit of God praying within you.

Point Two:

There is a story in the First Reading. Imagine being part of that story. You are gathered with the disciples in a house. Suddenly a huge noise drowns everything out. It is "like a strong driving wind." Something resembling a flame appears and hovers in the air. It splits into many flame-like presences, which hover over each person in the room. Picture yourself in that room.

They have at least 15 different languages among them. But they all understand. Picture yourself preaching or listening.

—p r a y q u i e t l y—

Point Three:

Ponder the immensely comforting statement by Jesus in the Gospel:

Whoever loves me will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we will come to him
and make our dwelling with him.

(Women, please substitute "her.")

Take time with each line. (Remember that "keeping Jesus' word" means loving one another, not just keeping the law.) Consider the Father's love for all of you. Let down your guard for a moment or two in order to make a home for Jesus and his Father. Let the Holy Spirit pray inside you.

—p a u s e—

Go on as long as you want.

Finally, when you are finished, address God and say where your heart is. Maybe God will give you a sense of the Holy Spirit in your personal daily life, in your progress from day to day! Say thanks.
