Sunday Family Connection

Pentecost is sometimes called the birthday of the Church.

The Gospel for Pentecost reminds us that the Church begins with the command to forgive. Within the family, the domestic church, we learn how to forgive and how to accept forgiveness. The gift of the Holy Spirit enables us to do both. Today is a fitting time to share a family celebration of reconciliation. As you gather together as a family, sit quietly for a few minutes, inviting everyone to reflect upon their need to forgive and to receive forgiveness. If there is a situation or issue within the family that needs attention, spend some time reflecting on how your family might address it. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:19-23. Talk together about how Jesus gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us in the work of forgiveness and to bring us peace. Pray together today's psalm or the Prayer to the Holy Spirit, asking that the Holy Spirit help your family. Share with one another the Sign of Peace.

Mass Intentions

No Prayer is more powerful than the Mass, and there is no greater way to show our love for our dead than to have Masses said for them.

This is the ancient teaching of the Church.

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention (anniversary, birthday, thanksgiving, answered prayers or for someone who has died, please contact the Parish Office and we will be happy to assist you in finding a date. The suggested stipend for a Mass is $10.

Spirituality of the Readings

Pentecost Sunday

May 19, 2024

Gone, but Lost Forever?

This is the last Sunday of the Easter season! Its Mass is vivid and exciting.

Suddenly there came from the sky
a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit
and began to speak in different tongues,
as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. (First Reading)

Wouldn't you have loved to be there? How thrilling it would have been!

Even more delightful, look at the wording. The noise was not an actual wind but something "like" a wind. And these were not tongues of fire, but tongues "as of fire" (i.e., "as if they were made of fire"). These were marvels that could not be described "as is." So the writer used metaphors.

Imagine it this way:

There was this sound that came from the sky, something that sounded like, uh, oh, let's see, uh, wind! That's it. It wasn't wind but that is the closest I can get to it. And then stuff that looked sort of like chunks of fire, or maybe like tongues made out of fire. Only it wasn't really fire. Or tongues either. Oh, I can't describe it.

It was a presence that is very real but too deep for words. So "as if" becomes a way to help us sense it. We call this procedure "metaphor," or just "comparison." It was "as if."

Why aren't we allowed to prophesy and talk in tongues as the apostles did* St. Paul handles this question beautifully in the Second Reading, but the answer is also found by recalling who the Holy Spirit is, as we have been doing in previous weeks.

The most essential thing we can say is that the Holy Spirit is completely and truly God. The third person of the Holy Trinity comes to dwell within us. No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

No wonder it is hard to describe!

As time went by, the bestowal of the Spirit became less dramatic but just as real. For instance, look at Acts 19:1-8, in which St. Paul came upon a dozen or so disciples who had never even heard of the Holy Spirit! He baptized them, and "as he laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied."

It was the sacrament of Baptism! Today, when we receive baptism and other sacraments, we are receiving the Holy Spirit! But gently and in ritual form. Christ and his Father come to dwell within us, but quietly.

Alright, then why do we not act as someone who has God within us?

Well, like anything planted so deep, the Spirit's presence must have time to make its way into our actions, our words, our deeds. Whenever we find acts of charity or joy in ourselves, or patience and kindness, or the ability to endure hardship and injuries; when we are tempted toward mildness and modesty, then we can know that the Holy Spirit is at work within us.

It is not as if heavy winds and tongues of fire are raging, as in former days. But it is the same Spirit of Jesus and of the Father... the one we have celebrated, this Easter season.

"Can we open ourselves to the Spirit?"
