Sunday Family Connection

The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity invites us to remember that God has revealed himself to us as one God in three Persons. As Jesus departed from his disciples, he shared with them the power to make disciples of all nations. He taught his disciples to invite others to share in the life of the blessed Trinity by sharing with others the gift of Baptism. This continues to be the mission of the Church. Each of us who has been baptized shares in the life of the blessed Trinity and also shares in the Church's mission of inviting others to share in God's love.

As you gather as a family, bring out pictures and other mementos of family celebrations of the Sacrament of Baptism. Talk about the significance of Baptism with your family. Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 28:16-20. Notice that Jesus taught his disciples to baptize all nations in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. What else does this remind you of? (the Sign of the Cross) Recall that whenever we pray the Sign of the Cross, we are reminding ourselves that we are united with God through our Baptism and share in the life of the blessed Trinity. Conclude by thanking God for sharing his life with us.

Mass Intentions

No Prayer is more powerful than the Mass, and there is no greater way to show our love for our dead than to have Masses said for them. This is the ancient teaching of the Church.

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention (anniversary, birthday, thanksgiving, answered prayers or for someone who has died, please contact the Parish Office and we will be happy to assist you in finding a date. The suggested stipend for a Mass is $10.

Spirituality of the Readings
Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity
May 26, 2024

Holy Trinity

The past Sundays have been rich with central images from our faith.

- 1) Jesus asking the Father to release him from the cross (Passion Sunday)
- 2) His passion and death (Holy Week)
- 3) The days of waiting (Good Friday, Holy Saturday)
- 4) The empty tomb and the barely-believed appearances (Easter)
- 5) His leaving this world, going back to the Father from whom he came (Ascension)
- 6) The Spirit of Jesus, God, still living after all, alive within us, pitching its tent in our hearts and souls, coming closer to us than we can come to ourselves (Pentecost)

Moving images, deep and piercing and rewarding. Perhaps they are enough for our prayer this week: remembering, in silence and depth.

But if you would like, we could look through those images together, connecting them with the readings for this Sunday. Clarity can come from such looking

1) Jesus asked the Father to release him from the cross. His whole life had been a testimony to the one he addressed as "Abba," the same God known in the Hebrew Testament, well-known for ages. Moses cried out in our First Reading.

... did anything so great ever happen before, was it ever heard of? Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live?

2) The Passion and death: Jesus' request to be spared on the cross was heard by the Abba. He was indeed saved from the sting of death, but only by plunging directly into it.

3) The days of waiting. They had thought he was their savior, but he had been ignominiously killed. The men were plunged into doubt, while the women testified simply that they had seen him!

4) His life was love and that could not be killed. The grave could not be the final place for his life of love. The risen Jesus left his tomb behind. When he appeared to the apostles in this Sunday's Gospel, they were a confused group. They fell down to worship him but simultaneously doubted. Like us maybe?

5) To help them, Jesus explained his life. He told them how life was to continue on earth, how they were to go out and themselves be the dwelling place of God on earth. Then he ascended.

6) His own Spirit would breathe within them, and for all ages. Their life-breath would be Christ's life-breath. Paul tells us in the Second Reading that the Holy Spirit, the third "person" within God and Christ, adopts us as the children of God.

The face of God comes to earth, revealed in our loving interactions—that are now based in the Trinity. We have become quietly the "heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ." We are to "suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Second Reading).

The transcendent God came as close as the cross. The Church, and the Trinity (which we know by its actions on earth) came to us described not only by all the learned treatises throughout the ages but by our own experience. We are grateful to Augustine and Aquinas and Rahner and von Balthasar, et al. But, above all, we give our thanks to God, who is love.

Such a great commissioning. Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
