Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

There are few people that we know better than the members of our own family. We know one another's strengths and abilities, and we also know one another's limitations and weaknesses. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, we may be tempted to focus on the faults and sins that familiarity with one another can sometimes reveal. As family members, however, we also have the ability to see one another's faults and sins within the context of the whole person. When we can keep this perspective, we are more likely to look upon one another with compassion. Family life, then, presents us the opportunity to see one another as God sees us, not with judgment and condemnation for our weaknesses and failings, but with mercy and compassion. When we learn to withhold judgment for the faults we know are there and seek the best in one another, we help one another to experience the depths of God's compassion, mercy, and love.

As you gather as a family, observe that when we know people well we know their faults as well as their strengths. At times, we can be tempted to focus on the faults we see in others. Discuss what your family life would be like if you always focused on one another's faults. Observe that in today's Gospel, Jesus refuses to focus on the sin of the woman brought to him for judgment. Read aloud today's Gospel, John 8:2-11. Ask: What did the people who focused on the woman's sin want to do? (stone the woman) What does Jesus say to the people who accused the woman caught in adultery? (that the person with no sin should throw the first stone) Are any of us without sin? (No.) Observe that we can help each other to grow in God's love by refusing to focus on one another's faults and sins. In this way, we can help one another to see ourselves as God sees us: with understanding and compassion. Conclude in prayer together asking God to forgive our sins by praying the Act of Contrition.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

COME, JOIN US AFTER 8:30 MASS EVERY SUNDAY:

Next Sunday April 13, Anna Orta and Christine Wolf Teigen, will be serving you coffee and donuts after Mass in the Parish Hall. Want to add to your Lenten Observance or just enjoy hearing more about your Catholic Faith? Catholic Daughters will have a table in the Parish Hall where you can check out Sacred Heart library books, pick up a rosary and information on how to say the rosary. Divine Mercy is coming up, there is also information on that. Come and join in the fun, visit and say hello.

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society is offering a $1,000.00 scholarship to a graduating senior who is an active member of St. Joseph's parish. Please contact Mary Jo Marsh at 503-392-3332. Application deadline is April 30, 2025.

St. Joseph's has a rosary preceding Sunday Mass at 10 a.m., also refreshments are served after Sunday Mass each weekend. Please join us.

St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

During Lent parishioners may want to check out St. Joseph's library in the Social Hall. There are many titles to choose from. Stories about saints such as St. John Paul II and St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta and others. Spiritual reading may be the Lenten inspiration you are looking for!

ALL HANDS-ON DECK!!!! CHURCH CLEANING

Please join us on April 12, at 9:00 for a full cleaning of the Church in preparation for Easter.

EASTER LILY INTENTIONS

This year we are placing mass intention Easter lilies on the altar. If you would like to have a lily on the altar with your intention, please contact the Church office to fill out an intention card that will be placed on a pre-ordered lily. For those attending the Easter Vigil Mass, you will have the option to present your lily at the altar during mass. We are asking for a donation of $10.00 per lily.

Spirituality of the Readings -
FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT
APRIL 6, 2025
John Foley, SJ

Caught!

It is a scene from a nightmare. Yet it turns out well.

Pretend that you are the woman in Sunday's Gospel. You have been "caught in adultery." The officials shove you into a mob of people.

These see your hot shame and how it burns. They recite the ancient law of Moses: "The sacred law says you must be stoned to death for your crime."

Stoned to death!

There was a man everyone called the "Teacher." He had been captivating the crowd just before you were dragged in. Now you, the woman, have become the center of attention.

By means of your disgrace the accusers try to trap the Teacher and shame you. They are using you for this purpose. They question the Teacher. Doesn't he agree you should be stoned to death? They have him in their snare, this "teacher," this dreamer who always preaches about forgiveness and love. If he defends you for the sake of his so-called love, he will break the law of Moses! If he does not defend you, he must follow the law, pick up a stone and throw it.

Teacher leans down and scratches absently in the dirt. People hold their breath, and the accusers worry. Why is he silent and what will he say? Now they have some nerves of their own.

"My Abba has loved each of you through all ages, no matter whether you were sinners or not."

For "Father" he uses an Aramaic word that expresses both familiarity and respect, "Abba." Abba always begged them, "be my people. Love one another. I love you, and I forgive your sins." But hatred is their motto, not love. They want death to happen.

They shout again. "What is your answer? Shall we follow the law and stone this sinful woman?" Remember, you are that woman, and you stand in humiliation, cheeks hot and tears falling. Your heart says in terror, "the accusers are right!"

Now the teacher lifts his head. He utters a sentence that sums up the Gospel and all of Lent.

"Let the one among you who is without sin throw the first stone."

The crowd creeps away quietly, submerged in their own consciences.

Now you stand alone before this quiet Teacher, and your terror has subsided. There is something about him that supports you, brings you out to solid ground.

"Well, where are they," he asks. "Has no one condemned you?" You say, "No one, sir." Then it is as if he also asks, "Do you condemn yourself?" You, the woman, spend a long time on this answer because it is so very hard. Finally you whisper, "I do not want to condemn myself, Teacher." "Neither do I condemn you," answers Jesus. "Go and sin no more."

This scene could refashion the whole earth. If we could each accept our own sinfulness as well as the forgiveness that surrounds it, we would have peace. We would drink in the compassion of God, who has been there all along, tracing in our souls.

We stammer at last, "I believe, Lord. Help my unbelief."
