Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

It is easy to choose to be with others when they are acting politely and respectfully. But children do not always act this way, especially with other family members. We can probably all recall a family meal in which such behavior was not observed. Yet we probably chose to sit through the meal anyway. We regularly give our children second chances—and often third and fourth chances—hoping that our generosity will be rewarded. That is how God acts with us. The ethic that Jesus describes seems like an impossible task: to give when asked and to do good to those who hate us. Yet family life is filled with opportunities to act generously and to love without measure. This is what we parents try to do every day. This is what we ask our children to learn. We are reminded that when we love generously and gratuitously, we love as God loves us. This is the meaning of mercy.

As you gather as a family, identify some things that family members are expected to do each day (prepare meals, go to school or work; complete homework assignments, complete household chores, behave appropriately at school, at work and at home; and so on). Discuss whether it is easy to live up to these expectations. Why or why not? Then discuss the meaning of the phrase “go the extra mile” and what it would mean to go the extra mile in the expectations you identified. Introduce today's Gospel: In today's Gospel reading, Jesus describes how we are to act toward one another. What he says may sound like what we mean by the phrase “going the extra mile.” Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 6:27-38. Discuss whether the actions Jesus describes are easy and consider why we might act in these ways if they seem difficult. Observe that today's Gospel challenges us to make choices based on God's standard; God loves us all the time by going the extra mile for us. During a time of quiet reflection, invite each family member to choose an action for the week in which he or she will go the “extra mile” for the family. Conclude in prayer by praying together St. Ignatius's Prayer for Generosity.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's has a rosary preceding Sunday Mass at 10 a.m., also refreshments are served after Sunday Mass each weekend. Please join us.

St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

St. Joseph's Altar Society is offering a $1,000.00 scholarship to a graduating senior who is an active member of St. Joseph's parish. Please contact Mary Jo Marsh at 503-392-3332. Application deadline is April 30, 2025.

How to Love

I don't know if you have read the book, Don't Sweat the Small Stuff (and it's all small stuff) by Richard Carlson. It offers advice and examples as to how we can live a loving and (more) peaceful life.

Are you interested?

One chapter shows us a way to be patient rather than upset when someone else does an annoying thing. For instance, if a car swerves in front of you, instead of your asking, "why in the '%$#' did he do that?" ask the question, "what is he trying to teach me?" It is like a game in which everyone is wise and you want to learn.*

This new attitude can be helpful. Honestly, it softened my attitude and awakened some compassion. A Ford went through a very narrow opening behind a truck and careened into my lane with only several inches to spare. So I tried the method. Instead of leaning on the horn and exercising road-rage, I imagined asking the person who swerved what I was supposed to learn. Richard Carlson answered, learn forgiveness.

Jesus lived before Carlson, of course, but as teacher, he had also suggested a big perspective change. In Sunday's Gospel he describes people trying to bargain for everything—if someone loves you, only then do you agree to love them in return; if they run their cart over your flower-bed or nearly knock you out of their way, then you are angry and substitute bad feelings for love. After all, who could be nice to a robber in their act of overpowering you?

Jesus recommends the opposite. "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you." Don't ask for anything in return.

But!

How can we "love without return?" Or, how can we "lend money and expect nothing back"? If you get a reward for each thing you do, Jesus says, you are just like the pagans!

But again. Is it even possible to just love and love and never get our own empty tank filled back up? Doesn't that lead to burnout?

Yes.

But the wonderful clue to Jesus' answer is found toward the bottom half of today's reading. He says that if we can give without guile, then we will be like "children of the Most High," who is always kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

How can God be "always kind" to us? Is it because his own needs are already filled? Does God show tender love because the divine being does not need a reward! Such a love overflows to us as we are, no matter our actions. Maybe Jesus was a model of that same love, in the divine-human form.

If we see this, if we experience it—say, in the Sacraments, or in prayer, or in another person—and if we let it in, then maybe our need-tanks will not be so empty. Maybe we can (over and over) allow ourselves to be loved, and thus team with Christ and his Abba.

Are you someone who hears what he says?

Well that is surely a change in perspective.
