Gospel Reading
Matthew 3:13-17
The Spirit of God comes upon Jesus as he is baptized by John.

At Jesus’ baptism, God affirms his Son’s mission for salvation. God announces his pleasure with Jesus and, in Matthew’s Gospel, announces to all that, “This is my beloved Son” (Matthew 3:17). With this affirmation, Jesus is able to resist the temptations described next in Matthew’s Gospel and to begin his public ministry. As family members, we can support one another in our Christian living by affirming the importance of each person in our eyes and in God’s. Confident that through our Baptism we too were made children of God, we can resist temptation and share in Christ’s mission. Gather as a family to read today’s Gospel, Matthew 3:13-17. Recall that God’s message about Jesus was meant for us, “This is my beloved Son.” It was also an affirmation for Jesus about his role in God’s plan. Place each family member’s name on a slip of paper and put the names in a bowl. Invite each person in the family to choose another family member’s name and to prepare a message for that person, affirming their importance in God’s eyes and in your family life. Pray together that your family will continue to support one another in your baptismal promises to be disciples of Jesus and then invite each person to read aloud the message they prepared. Conclude by praying together the Lord’s Prayer.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

COME, JOIN US AFTER 8:30 MASS NEXT SUNDAY:

Next Sunday January 18, Sacred Heart will be serving you delicious Breakfast after 8:30 Mass in the Parish Hall. Come and join us as we raise funds for our Parish and enjoy a tasty breakfast and friendly conversation.

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph Parish

St. Joseph's Altar Society will be meeting at 10:00 a.m. Monday, January 12th. All ladies of the parish are invited to attend. Meetings are held the 2nd Monday of the month.

Parish Breakfast!!!!!!!!!!

January 18, 2026, after 8:30 Mass

Come and join us for biscuits and gravy, fruit, donuts and coffee!!

Suggested donation of $7.00.

Funds raised will go towards the parish retreat in October 2026

Today's Reflection

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord (Year A)

Sunday December January 11, 2026

You Are My Beloved

A few years ago I was privileged to write music for As a River of Light, which is the story of Jesus' passion according to Luke.* The librettist, Michael Dennis Browne, and I had a good time conceiving the opening scene in which many different people approached John the Baptist and spoke out their names as they were baptized.

Michael was away from home, but we needed specific names for the people. So I went to a friend who is also a scholar of the scriptures, Fr. Dennis Hamm. I told him I wanted names of people from the New Testament era, but I did not want them to sound formal and starchy: daily names that people used for short. Could he think of any? Dennis paused a fraction of a second and said, "you mean like 'Jack the Dipper'?"

The hilarity of the moment did not mask the fact that the word baptism does derive from a word meaning to dip.

After we got a list of names, I went off to compose music for the scene, with Jesus as just another person in the lineup of people to be baptized. This emphasizes Jesus' humility.

As you know, Jesus' baptism had a spectacular climax. The heavens opened and Jesus saw the Holy Spirit descending upon him like a dove. He heard from heaven the following words: "You are my beloved and in you I am well pleased." I loved writing music for these words. As it happened, the first violinist for the recording showed up with a Stradivarius, making the violin solo particularly poignant.

The words are also echoes of the First Reading (from Isaiah) we will hear this Sunday.

Here is my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit ... ; a bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth.

Both readings are loving, gentle and filled with promise.

What I did not realize—even after several performances and a recording session—was that such a short sentence, put to music, would be the one everybody would choose as their favorite moment from the whole musical: the tender voice of God, saying "You are my beloved and in you I am well pleased." It seems to have captured many hearts. I suspect people hear God's voice saying the same thing to them, even today.

God's love for us naturally evokes our mutual love for God. Jesus heard the voice of love and immediately went to the desert to prepare the giving of his whole life to God in gratitude. If you and I ever begin to grasp the meaning of "you are my beloved," we too will begin to live our lives out of thankfulness to the one who stands behind the words.

That strange name, "Jack the Dipper," started me toward an understanding of the sacrament of Baptism, even if it is the Baptism of the Lord himself. It says loud and clear to the infant or the adult being baptized, "Come in. Be washed. You are much beloved to God and to the Church."

I hope you and I can remember those words all the days of our lives.
