Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

Gospel Reading
Matthew 2:1-12

The Magi seek out Jesus and do him homage.

The tradition of giving gifts at Christmas is thought by some to be rooted in the gift giving of the Magi. In many cultures, gifts are not exchanged at Christmas, but rather on the feast of the Epiphany.

Whenever you exchange your Christmas gifts, take some time to reflect on this tradition of gift giving at Christmas. Think of the best gift you have received. What was it? What made it special? Was it the gift itself, the thought that went into it, or the person who gave it to you?

Read today's Gospel, Matthew 2:1-12. The gifts of the Magi—gold, frankincense, and myrrh—have come to be understood as symbols of Christ's royalty, divinity, and eventual suffering and death.

They are special because in giving them, the Magi acknowledge who Jesus was to be: our Savior. We pray that we will acknowledge Jesus as Savior in all that we do and say. Conclude by singing together "We Three Kings."

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph Parish

St. Joseph's Altar Society would like to thank everyone who helped make this year's Christmas Bazaar a such a great success. The winner of the Quilt Raffle was Linda Shiels and the winner of the Candy Raffle (guess how many pieces of candy were in the jar) was Sandra Fraser. All of the profit from this bazaar will be donated to south county charities so your contributions are greatly appreciated.

Faith Formation Classes will resume on Wednesday January 7 at 6pm.

Holy Family Ministry Groups

The Holy Family Men and Women's Ministry Group will meet after 5 pm Mass on Tuesday January 6 in the Conference Room. Hope to see you all there.

Todays Reflection

The Epiphany of the Lord (Year A)

Sunday December January 4, 2026

King

The Wise Men, or "Magi," cross into one more kingdom in their long journey.

Courteously they visit the monarch of that kingdom, not knowing he was the infamous Herod, whom they could have avoided. I suppose every amenity took place: formal welcome, diplomatic over-do, huge meals, fine drinks. Such excesses had to take place even in a commonplace kingdom.

Finally, when the moment arrives, they pose their question. "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We have read the signs and know of his birth." They trust Herod for truth, since, obviously, this infant will be the next in line from Herod.

What seems to them like a sincere question strikes terror into the Herodian heart. He maintains his diplomatic balance, temporizing, but with a promise to find the answer. He skillfully ends the meeting for that night. But, within him are the words, Newborn King? NO, NO, NO! I AM THE KING! My lineage is the answer to this menacing child. Herod's insides shout for him to do something!

Do something!

He goes to the chief priests and scribes and charms them with what he presents as an idle interest, an "honest" question. Do you experts, busy studying day and night, do you know anything about the predicted Messiah figure we used to hope for? I wonder, if he were to be born today, where that would be?

"In Bethlehem of Judea," they respond, where the great King David was born. These experts know the scriptures well, as Herod does not. This Messiah will be David's successor, shepherd of the people Israel, fulfillment of everything the Hebrew people had awaited for centuries.

The Herodian head swirls. At last he forms a plan. Find him and kill him.

Herod will designate the town for these Magi and they will search out and find the baby!

He makes his way across the halls and utters the words, "Bethlehem is the place! The child is in Bethlehem! All you have to do is find him. Oh, and of course, let me know where he is. Why? So that I too may do him homage."

The homage Herod has in mind is death. His lust for power will banish the command of love in order for him to stay in control. He is most willing to compete directly even with God and with the newborn Christ. Notice, he is accepting the same deal Satan will offer to Jesus in the desert thirty years later. That offer was, "you can control the whole world if you will only fall down and worship me. Help me defeat God." Satan too was a power-monger.

The funny thing is that, for Jesus, "power" is not at all the same thing Herod and Satan are grabbing for. For their part they want to become bigger and bigger, to stretch beyond infinity. His goal is to become less and less, to become transparent, just as love is.

Heavy selfish greed is being offered, but it cannot demolish this heavenly plan. It surely can seem to. To Herod it certainly seems to.

The child's weakness shows what God has in mind as an answer to evil: tender, unfearing openness to love.

In our sinfulness, we scoff at such a plan. Mary, Joseph, and Jesus will never win, will they? Evil will triumph in the end, won't it? The cross will do what Herod could not, but that Satan could.

Will it?

Maybe Christmas is our down-payment on the cross!
