Sunday Family Connections

Families rely on selfless love. Parents show love for their children not just when it's convenient, but whenever their children's needs must be met. Imagine if the members of a family were concerned only with their own needs. How quickly things would fall apart!

In the story of the Good Samaritan, we learn about someone who went out of his way to care for the needs of another. He recognized the victim as his brother and accepted responsibility for him. As a family, talk about the responsibilities of each member of the family. Share how you, as parents, care for the needs of everyone in the family even when it's inconvenient. Ask your children to share times when they did chores and helped the family even when it was not convenient.

Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel, Luke 10:25-37. Talk about how the Samaritan went out of his way to care for the needs of the victim. Make a commitment as a family to follow the example of the Good Samaritan. Explain that the more you learn to accept responsibility for each other's needs at home, the more you'll be able to accept responsibility for the needs of others in the world.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,

may the faith you have given us

in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled

in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos

in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,

when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,

your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,

a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,

be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

COME, JOIN US AFTER 8:30 MASS EVERY SUNDAY:

On Sunday July 20, Stephanie Rangel, Ronda Groshong and Steve Persichetti will be serving you coffee and donuts after Mass in the Parish Hall. Come and join us for some coffee, donuts and friendly conversation.

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society would like to expand their membership and in hopes of more women of the parish joining their meetings, and are asking women of the parish if an occasional evening meeting would help them to participate. Please respond to Stjosephcloverdale@gmail.com. St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church Cemetery

Do you have a loved one buried at the cemetery, have a few hours a month to spare or love lending a helping hand?

With limited hands helping, it's making a lot of work for the few that do. Can you donate a couple of hours a month to help mow? Riding lawnmower awaits you! We'd love to hear from you! Contact Christina Maahs at 503-812-8689 or hit us up at church. We'd appreciate the help!

Baptismal Preparation Classes:

Baptismal Preparation Classes are offered every second Saturday of the Month as needed. If you plan to take the class, you need to register a week before the class. If there is no interest, there will be no class.

Men & Women's Group Meeting

The Men and Women's group is meeting on Tuesday July 15 after 5 pm Mass in the Conference Room. It's never too late to join. Everyone is welcome.

Catholic Daughters are planning a rummage sale in October. Start planning on items you wish to donate to the sale. Stay tune for more information to come.

Sacred Heart Carnival

We are planning our Sacred Heart Carnival for August 23rd. Stay tune for more information to come.

FLOWERS FOR THE CHURCH!!!!!!

We are looking for flowers from your gardens to decorate the Church. If you are interested in donating flowers, please contact Stephanie Rangel at 949-874-4407 or stephanie@jsa-inc.com

Spirituality of the Readings 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday July 13, 2025

Beloved of God

If we listen carefully to the readings this Sunday, we will hear the whole Christian and Catholic life very gently stated—even (or especially) in this post-covid world, complete with Ukraine and high prices.

In the First Reading Moses describes how simple God's command is. I would like to quote his words because they are beautiful.

God's command is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'

The commandment of the Lord is very near to us, already in our hearts and in our mouths. We have only to carry it out.

But what is that commandment?

In the Gospel, a lawyer is very interested in this question. He asks Jesus to collapse the whole law down to a single saying. Since the answer is, to quote, "not too mysterious and remote," Jesus asks the lawyer what he thinks it is. The man says, by rote:

You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your being,
with all your strength,
and with all your mind,
and your neighbor as yourself.

"You have answered correctly," Jesus says. "Do this and you will live." But the man wants specifics. He is digging. He asks, who is my neighbor?

What would be your answer to this question, which seems to be the crux of the matter? Take your time.

For his part, Jesus is trying to get the man (and you?) to find a simple answer without being handed one. As before, Jesus does not respond directly, but this time gives the lawyer a parable to chew on:

A man fell victim to robbers. They beat him terribly, took his money, and left him lying in the road, half-dead. A priest (an Israelite) saw this wounded man on the road and passed right by, averting his eyes. A Levite (an Israelite) did the same thing. Then along came a Samaritan, who theoretically should have been an enemy of the Israelis. But he did not avert his eyes or cross to the other side of the road.*

He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them.
Then he lifted him up on his own animal,
took him to an inn, and cared for him.
The next day he took out two silver coins
and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction,

'Take care of him.'

Now the lawyer starts to get it. Jesus asks him, "which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" and the lawyer says immediately, "the one who treated him with mercy." Jesus answers, "Go and do likewise."

Jesus also "does likewise" with you and me. He keeps working with us, trying to get us to see the simple answer that hides inside us. God has given us an open heart. Help those in need. If only you would let your heart receive God's love and pass it on to his other people!

This is not too mysterious or remote. Start now. Become what you were made to be. It is written within the law and within you.
