COME, JOIN US AFTER 8:30 MASS EVERY SUNDAY:

On Sunday July 27, Anna Orta & Christine Wolf Teigen, will be serving you coffee and donuts after Mass in the Parish Hall. Come and join us for some coffee, donuts and friendly conversation.

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society would like to expand their membership and in hopes of more women of the parish joining their meetings, and are asking women of the parish if an occasional evening meeting would help them to participate. Please respond to Stjosephcloverdale@gmail.com. St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church Cemetery

Do you have a loved one buried at the cemetery, have a few hours a month to spare or love lending a helping hand?

With limited hands helping, it's making a lot of work for the few that do. Can you donate a couple of hours a month to help mow? Riding lawnmower awaits you! We'd love to hear from you! Contact Christina Maahs at 503-812-8689 or hit us up at church. We'd appreciate the help!

Baptismal Preparation Classes:

Baptismal Preparation Classes are offered every second Saturday of the Month as needed. If you plan to take the class, you need to register a week before the class. If there is no interest, there will be no class.

Catholic Daughters are planning a rummage sale in October. Start planning on items you wish to donate to the sale. Stay tune for more information to come.

Sacred Heart Carnival

We are planning our Sacred Heart Carnival for August 23rd. We will need Volunteers to help. There is a sign up sheet in the vestibule for you to sign-up if you would like to volunteer. Stay tune for more information to come.

FLOWERS FOR THE CHURCH!!!!!!

We are looking for flowers from your gardens to decorate the Church. If you are interested in donating flowers, please contact Stephanie Rangel at 949-874-4407 or stephanie@jsa-inc.com

Welcoming God

Two stories about hospitality this week. But as it turns out, it is hospitality to God!

The First Reading says that Abraham was sitting outside his tent on a hot day. He looked up to find three men standing nearby on the path, apparently satisfying their curiosity about the tent and its occupants. It is not clear that Abraham knew who they were, but we suspect that they were God appearing to Abraham in human form!

How does Abraham react to this Godly presence?

He flies into action. He bows deeply. He begs the men to relax from their journey and receive comfort, nourishment, and rest. Beautiful hospitality from the Eastern part of the world.

He then rushes into the great tent, issuing pell-mell commands to his wife Sarah. "Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make rolls." He picks the best steer and orders the servant to prepare it. He dashes outside to get curds and milk. At long last he sets the whole meal before the men.

Quite a scene. Quite a welcome.

All at once the men make a sudden, astonishing statement. Next year Sarah will bear a son by Abraham. As the dinner had progressed, Sarah had stood behind the tent flap listening, and now she actually laughs out loud as she hears this absurdity about her dried-up body, nearly 89 years old, which is to issue forth a tender baby. (Our scripture selection for Sunday leaves out the laughing part. If you want to read it, press here).

As you may know, after a time this amazing prophecy did indeed come to be. We can thank God that Abraham listened to the men, the presence of God.

Second story. In the Gospel, Jesus enters the house of his friends Mary and Martha. He too is warmly welcomed. As he sits, Mary arranges herself at his feet and focuses her clear wide eyes upon him, while Martha bustles about preparing dinner.

Unfair!

Martha gets tired and exasperated, and finally asks Jesus to make Mary stop lounging and help out a little.

Surprisingly, Jesus says, no.

"Mary has chosen the better part," he explains.

Isn't this response unjust to Martha? After all, someone has to make the meal or there would be none. Or maybe Martha could have said, "we are not having any food tonight, we are just going to sit and stare at you."

In truth, Martha's trouble was not that she was scrabbling about, but that as she did so she forgot about Jesus. She was not making him welcome, she was constructing a meal. He even tells her that she was anxious and worried about many things, not the one thing necessary.

What is the one thing necessary? Relation to Christ.

Real hospitality means a two-way relationship in which host and guest open to each other, become present to one another in various ways. Hosts do work out the details of preparation, and they work hard. But they always remember the visitor while they prepare. Excellent hosts manage somehow to get everything ready but also to truly listen and converse with the one who has come.

That is how we are supposed to act every day. We are to find God in all things, in all the people we know and/or help, no matter how busy we might be. We are to relate to them because God is within them, deep in their souls. Touch them. Hear them. Prepare meals for them, without forgetting them. They will be giving hospitality to God himself.

Abraham gave it. Mary gave it. Martha forgot like you and I do, but she learned.

Let's try to learn it too.
