togetherness and community. It is in the family that we learn that we are dependent on one another and where we learn to work together and live together. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus sends out the 72 disciples in pairs, a sign that we are to work together to serve the mission of the Kingdom of God. Talk about all the ways that your family works together. Talk about the various chores and tasks that family members work on together to accomplish in order to keep the household running smoothly.

Read aloud Luke 10:1-12,17-20. Talk about why it was important that Jesus sent his disciples out in pairs. Discuss ways that your family can work more closely together to support one another and to make the household run more smoothly. Pray for the strength to overcome the temptation to be too individualistic and to recognize the need for working together as a family.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society would like to expand their membership and in hopes of more women of the parish joining their meetings, and are asking women of the parish if an occasional evening meeting would help them to participate. Please respond to Stjosephcloverdale@gmail.com. St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church Cemetery

Do you have a loved one buried at the cemetery, have a few hours a month to spare or love lending a helping hand?

With limited hands helping, it's making a lot of work for the few that do. Can you donate a couple of hours a month to help mow? Riding lawnmower awaits you! We'd love to hear from you! Contact Christina Maahs at 503-812-8689 or hit us up at church. We'd appreciate the help!

Baptismal Preparation Classes:

Baptismal Preparation Classes are offered every second Saturday of the Month as needed. If you plan to take the class, you need to register a week before the class. If there is no interest, there will be no class.

All Church Liturgy Minister:

There is a refresher training for all Liturgy Ministers on July 8 starting with Mass at 5pm. The meeting will be in the Conference room. This is a requirement for all Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Sacristans and ushers.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday July 6, 2025

This Sunday, Jesus tells his followers, as they head into the world, to take nothing with them — "no money bag, no sack, no sandals." I'm sending you like lambs among wolves, he says.

Throughout this series of Gospel readings, we're being cautioned, again and again: Don't get, just give. Don't save up, but surrender. Don't load up but let go.

Christ's continuing message here is one of detachment — or, in a popular phrase of the recovery movement: let go and let God.

But wait, there's more. This week we realize that when Jesus sends his followers into the world, they are not being sent empty-handed. They go bearing one simple message, one priceless word: "Peace."

Jesus tells them: "Into whatever household you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household."" Peace.

It is also the first word he will say to them after the Resurrection, when he appears in the upper room. And it is the great message he is asking them — and asking us — to carry into the world. Carry no sack, no money, no sandals. Carry, instead, peace.

This is where it starts. It is his first word to those who wish to follow Christ. We'll remember that it was also the first word spoken by Pope Leo XIV when he stepped onto the balcony after his election in May — and the first word he chose to transmit on social media just a few days later. Peace.

Are we getting the message? It's worth asking ourselves this week: how well are we spreading that word? Whatever else there may be in the world today, there is very little peace. And that extends far beyond just the absence of war. They are also the countless conflicts that erupt in our daily lives — between spouses, between parents and children, between neighbors and co-workers.

How often do we offer to people in our lives, with what we say or how we live, "peace"? How often do we make peace our mission and our message?

The writer Anthony de Mello tells the story of a man whose marriage was in trouble. He sought some advice from a spiritual master. The master told him, "You must learn to listen to your wife." The man took the advice to heart and returned several weeks later and said he'd learned to listen to every word his wife was saying. The master smiled and said, "Good. Now go home and listen to every word she isn't saying."

Maybe if more of us did that — not just with our spouses, but with each other — it might be a beginning, a first step, toward making peace a reality. To listen that way means you don't have the last word. In fact, it makes Christ's first word the last word. Peace!

It means living with a kind of humility and attentiveness to one another that Christ asks of us. It is a way of going into the world with nothing — except what really matters.

The detachment that Jesus is demanding isn't just a detachment from things. It is a detachment from ourselves. It is separating from our own pride, our own ego, our own sense of entitlement, our own feeling that we always have to be right.

It is taking with us nothing but what we are — stripped of what we pretend to be, divested of what we own, all that we use to impress people. It is putting that aside and carrying forth just one message, in Christ's name: peace.

Are we willing (as a famous song once put it) to give peace a chance? The day we can live that spirit and give it joyfully to others, we may not have a sack or money or sandals. But we will be wealthy beyond measure. And the world will be, too.
