Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

In today's Gospel, the voice from heaven speaks to the disciples saying, "Listen to him." The Transfiguration was a focused moment for the disciples when they heard God speaking to them and experienced Jesus in glory. They most certainly left this focused moment with a new appreciation for the importance of Jesus' words even if they did not yet understand everything that he had taught them. During Lent, we are invited to consider our attentiveness to Jesus and to one another. In the pace and noise that often characterizes family life, how well do we listen to one another? What opportunities do we have for quiet prayer?

As you gather as a family, count the number of pieces of equipment in your home that produce sound: televisions, radios, CD players, computers, video games, etc. Observe if sometimes more than one piece of equipment is playing simultaneously and how this might affect communication. Discuss the question: What is it like to try to talk with one another when this equipment is on?

Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 9:28-36. Consider whether the noise and pace of your family life allows family members opportunities for quiet prayer. During Lent, it may be appropriate for your family to choose a time for quiet in the household by turning off televisions, radios, and CD players. Consider whether your family would like to establish such a time during this Season of Lent and suggest that it might allow you the opportunity to listen more attentively to one another and to find time for quiet prayer. Spend a few such moments as a family, asking God to help you listen well to one another and to Jesus.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

COME, JOIN US AFTER 8:30 MASS EVERY SUNDAY:

Next Sunday, March 23, Catholic Daughters, will be serving you coffee and donuts after Mass in the Parish Hall. Come and join in the fun, visit and say hello.

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's has a rosary preceding Sunday Mass at 10 a.m., also refreshments are served after Sunday Mass each weekend. Please join us.

St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

During Lent parishioners may want to check out St. Joseph's library in the Social Hall. There are many titles to choose from. Stories about saints such as St. John Paul II and St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta and others. Spiritual reading may be the Lenten inspiration you are looking for!

Stations of the Cross

We will be praying the Stations of the Cross every Friday in Lent in the main Church at 6:00 pm. Come and join us as we follow Jesus to the Cross.

Unbound Ministries

On January 18-19, 2025, Father George Knab visited Sacred Heart and St. Josephs to preach on behalf of Unbound Ministries. On January 21, 2025, Father Knab reached out to Father Te letting him know our parish sponsored another 12 individuals. Father Knab conveyed a heartfelt thank you to those who took the opportunity to make a difference to vulnerable people in need.

Catholic Daughters

On March 4, 2025, The Catholic Daughters of America made a generous donation of $600.00 to the Sacred Heart Religious Education Fund. Thank you CDA!!!

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT
MARCH 16, 2025
John Foley, SJ

An Offer You Can Refuse

Such a great offer, God's covenant with human beings. It will fit into just eleven words:

I will be your God and you will be my people.

In return for God's great love would we promise to love God above all things.

Our first parents had this relationship with God in the Garden of Eden. However, God watched with anguish as their free will, the gift he had given them, suddenly rejected his love.

God toiled to re-establish the covenant throughout history, as our First Reading shows. Fortunately, after many failures on our part, God singled out a paltry old nomadic individual named Abram and made a promise to him which seemed impossible:

Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so, he added, shall your descendants be.

And,

Abram put his faith in the Lord, who approved it to him as an act of righteousness.*

God was crediting Abram with having fulfilled the covenant! This meant receiving the offered love ("I will be your God"), and putting his faith in the Lord ("You will be my people").

In Sunday's First Reading, there was about to be an ancient sacrificial cult. As the sun was almost ready to set, Abram fell into a trance; a deep terrifying darkness enveloped him. Fire appeared among the animals that he had slain. God spoke, promising a homeland, "the promised land," to Abram and his descendants.

This was God's half of the covenant.

The other half was up to Abram and his wife Sara. Their response was more complicated. In their extreme old age Abraham and Sara were to have a son (Genesis 18:10ff), and the son's descendants would keep the covenant. At least at times they would—but often did not. As time went by the covenant was ignored and forgotten.

Much later, when the time was right, God thought up a brilliant solution, so to speak. Instead of speaking from on high or through representatives, God himself would take shape on earth as one of the people. The second person of the trinity would become the Messiah, the Christ.

This Christ was to be the very love God had offered for so many centuries. And get this: he was also, at the same time, the people's loving response, since he was completely a human being! Think of it: as the God-man, Jesus was able to fulfill both halves of the covenant.

The transfiguration in Sunday's Gospel represents both the promise and its fulfillment! Jesus' clothes become dazzling as fire—a counterpart to the fire in the First Reading! A terrifying darkness closed in, just as it had with Abram. And within that darkness, God's voice repeated the covenant words: words:

This is my chosen Son; listen to him.

In the cross and resurrection, the covenant would finally be fulfilled—on both sides, the Godly and the human. The result: you and I do not have to offer more and more sacrifices in order to achieve this fulfillment. We only have to let ourselves be joined to Jesus in his loving response to the Father.

How do we do this?

We begin it in Baptism. We continue it in each Mass, each communion we receive. We say "amen" to the covenant, so many times broken, but now established forever as the "new and everlasting covenant" of love, the cross and resurrection, received in the Eucharist.

Welcome to Lent!
