Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

“Hey, that's not fair!” How many times have we heard this spoken in our family? Family members challenge one another's generosity, operating from the perspective of limited resources. If we have given to one, perhaps there won't be enough for the other. Jesus wants us to understand that this is not how it is with God's mercy and forgiveness. God offers his love to all of us in abundance. The forgiveness of the father in the parable is an image of God's love for us, generous beyond measure in his love for both of his sons. Can we truly believe that God acts this way towards us and accept his mercy without jealousy, knowing that God's love for another does not diminish his love for us?

As you gather as a family, talk about the words and phrases you speak to one another when angry. Identify words or phrases that reflect jealousy towards one another. Talk about why we sometimes feel jealousy towards one another. Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 15:1-3,11-32. Talk about why the older brother is jealous of the younger brother. Identify words that the family members in the parable might say to one another to begin to heal their broken relationships. Make a family commitment to say these types of words and phrases to one another with greater frequency. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

Cowering

Have you noticed the way dogs hang their heads and grovel when they are scolded, wheedling their way back into good graces.

To us humans it looks as if they are saying "I'm really, really sorry for what I did, and please, please, please forgive me. To make up for it, I will do any base thing you want."

Poor dog.

And poor prodigal son in this week's Gospel. Like a dog at Easter table, this son ate up his father's money on riotous living in a faraway country. Obviously he would run out of funds, but was having too much fun to notice.

Then there came the terrible famine.

This once pampered youth now had to feed somebody's herd of pigs just to live. He would have been happy to gobble their husks.

It took a while for the truth to hit him, what he had done to himself and to his family. He first noticed indeed that he was starving. He made a forced but perhaps humble decision to go back to his father and ask for mercy, hanging his head just like dogs do. "Please, please, please, please forgive me."

He dragged down the dusty road to his father's estate, practicing his speech over and over.

Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.
I no longer deserve to be called your son;
treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers. (Gospel)

In other words, he would "grovel and do any base thing needed." He would even admit the sins he was so embarrassed about.

You and I might have such an occasion too, once in a while.

Often we are terrified that anyone even would know our faults. And we think God will respond with rage against us if he finds out. So we make Lenten "firm purposes of amendment," and urge our New Year's promises (or whatever else). We want to be "worthy" before God, with our sins hidden from sight.

But in the parable does this father fold his arms and put on a "parental" angry face? No. He spots far down the road his prodigal son (who is still memorizing the his lines) and sets out running to the lost one. See them meet, enveloped in thirsty road-dust. Father embraces his son and kisses him. The boy tries to blunder his lines.

Father, I have sinned terribly! I am no longer worthy of ...

But his dad drowns him out, calling for the finest robe in the house, a ring for the boy's finger, sandals for his feet, and a huge banquet of celebration. This father shows that he does indeed understand. And he is ecstatic that his son came home.

Apply that now to you and me. We assume that God is angry. Our shame says, "Father, I am no good. I am totally unworthy."

But God is saying, "I know what you have done, child. You needn't cower. You are precious to me, not because you never sin. I know that it can happen, and I am all forgiveness! Come, come, have back your brothers, sisters, neighbors and, most of all, your Father.

"Let me hug you."

Because he invites us so close to his heart, God is most willing to absorb the losses we inflict. Even if we were to join forces with evil in the world, God would wait and pray, welcome us back, sins and all, with open arms. And help us overcome the evil that plagues the world.

By the way, notice that Jesus' arms are wide open on the cross.
