Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

In Luke's Gospel, the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert appears just after Jesus' baptism and before Jesus begins his public ministry. We can imagine this as a time of transition, a turning point in Jesus' life. Perhaps we can liken it to one of the important turning points in our own lives: the decision to marry, the birth of a child, the acceptance of a new job, or the decision to move to a new home. After the moment of decision, having reached the point of no return, we sometimes begin to wonder if we are prepared and ready for the task before us. Turning points can be times of doubt and insecurity. Jesus' response to the temptations of the devil offers an example for responding in faith when our doubts and insecurities tempt us to distrust God's sufficiency. Jesus rebukes the devil by quoting Scripture. Each citation is an affirmation of trust in God. We learn to trust in big things by practicing trust in little things. Our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving invite us to trust God in these small ways. They remind us that God will suffice for us. They prepare us to trust in God in all things, especially in moments of doubt and uncertainty.

As a family, talk about ways in which trust has been built among members of the family. Observe how being trustworthy in small matters enables us to trust one another in more important matters. Offer specific examples if possible (e.g., children who establish their responsibility in household tasks can be granted greater independence and freedom to choose how they perform these tasks). Today's Gospel shows us how Jesus trusted God in all things. Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 4:1-13. Discuss how Jesus showed his trust in God when he resisted the devil's temptations. Invite family members to name times when they have trusted God in matters small or large. Write a family prayer together. You might write the prayer so that each line begins with a letter in the word "trust." Pray this prayer together.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's has a rosary preceding Sunday Mass at 10 a.m., also refreshments are served after Sunday Mass each weekend. Please join us.

St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

St. Joseph's Altar Society is offering a $1,000.00 scholarship to a graduating senior who is an active member of St. Joseph's parish. Please contact Mary Jo Marsh at 503-392-3332. Application deadline is April 30, 2025.

Stations of the Cross

We will be praying the Stations of the Cross every Friday in Lent in the main Church at 6:00 pm. Come and join us as we follow Jesus to the Cross.

Unbound Ministries

On January 18-19, 2025, Father George Knab visited Sacred Heart and St. Josephs to preach on behalf of Unbound Ministries. On January 21, 2025, Father Knab reached out to Father Te letting him know our parish sponsored another 12 individuals. Father Knab conveyed a heartfelt thank you to those who took the opportunity to make a difference to vulnerable people in need.

Catholic Daughters

On March 4, 2025, The Catholic Daughters of America made a generous donation of $600.00 to the Sacred Heart Religious Education Fund. Thank you CDA!!!

Spirituality of the Readings - FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

MARCH 9, 2025

John Foley, SJ

You Are My Beloved

In Sunday's reading, Jesus has been swept into the desert by a voice that said "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." (Luke 3:21-22).

These were God's words.

Notice that they are nearly the same as what God had uttered eight hundred years before, as follows:

Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen in whom my soul delights, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations" (Isaiah 42:1-4).

The voice of God still speaks again to his servant, making it quite clear that Jesus is the chosen one.

Was Jesus surprised to hear this? In some ways, no. He already knew in his deepest soul and all the way outwards how close he was to God. Yet he was simultaneously human, and completely so. Therefore, in another way, he was shocked. He had read and re-read the Isaiah passage above since he was at his mother's knee. Now it all clicked into place.

He was the chosen one.

The human being, Jesus, needed to ponder this stunning message. He had to listen in silence and with an openness so holy that it would seem almost like emptiness.

So he went to the desert.

The devil, for his part, had already known about Jesus, with a dumb and greedy knowledge. He saw that this great servant of God could be used for ulterior motives. From the moment the Jesus-child was born, all this, his strength, his God-like holiness, the fame he would acquire, could become a tool for subjecting the world to Satan.

"No point in being empty," the sly tempter said to the hungry Jesus. "Just give a Godly command and this stone will turn into bread." You are God, aren't you? Take whatever you want. Have a great life!

Note to reader: How do you relieve your hunger?

Jesus answered from the scriptures. "One does not live by bread alone." These words paraphrase Moses' great second speech to the people of Israel:

Not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the Lord" (Deuteronomy 8:3).

The devil, rapacious, scurried on to a second temptation, this time an invitation to glory. Join me, worship me. All the kingdoms of the world will be yours, as they already are mine. (Translation: you can be bigger than this heavenly father of yours.) Jesus answered, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and him alone shall you serve" (see Deuteronomy 6:13).

Note to the reader: what do you and I worship and serve—instead of God?

Two temptations had now failed. As we know, "even the devil can quote scripture," so he uses Psalm 91—the part about God commanding angels to guard the beloved one (verses 11 and 12). Just throw yourself off the heights of this temple, the devil suggests smoothly. God's angels will have no choice, they will have to come save you. Take advantage of who you are.

Note to the reader: Don't you want to show off your power sometimes?

Jesus again answers from the same book of scripture (Deuteronomy 6:16). "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." The meaning: God the Father is above all. If you think you can bribe him to save you, then you might seem to yourself equal to him! But you aren't.

Note to all people: do we sometimes think we are God?

Instead, imitate the Son of God.
