Sunday Family Connections

Gospel Reading
Matthew 5:1-12

Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Family Connection
One of the great gifts of our Catholic tradition is remembrance of and prayer with the saints. The Church offers us an official canon, or list, of saints. On All Saints Day, we recall and pray with these saints. It is important to continue to tell these stories of saints and saintly people to our children so that they have ample models of people of faith for their own lives.

Together as a family, name and tell the story of favorite saints. Together prepare a list of some of the traits that these people have in common (generosity, courage, prayerfulness, and so on) After preparing this list, read together today's Gospel, Matthew 5:1-12. Identify how the attitudes described in the Beatitudes are reflected in the lives of the saints and people you named.

Pray together as a family a Litany of the Saints. (For example, the leader prays, "St. Elizabeth," and the children are invited to reply, "Pray for us.") Include in your list the saints and holy people you named in your discussion. Conclude by praying that your family will follow the example of these people as disciples of Jesus.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

COME, JOIN US AFTER 8:30 MASS EVERY SUNDAY:

On Sunday November 9, Stephanie will be serving you coffee and donuts after Mass in the Parish Hall. Come and join us for some coffee, donuts and friendly conversation.

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society has begun planning for their annual Christmas Bazaar to be held on December 6th. They are planning on the usual polish-dogs with sauerkraut and also their traditional cinnamon rolls.

Also there will be a quilt raffle, plant sale, home baked goodies and jams and jellies. Quilt raffle tickets will be for sale for a beautiful quilt after Sunday Masses until the Christmas bazaar. Please consider attending.

Please be thinking about how you can contribute to the success of the bazaar, which helps support local charities.

The St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the 2nd Monday of each month. Refreshments are served after Sunday Mass in the church social hall. All are welcome!

St. Joseph Church, is also asking for donations of Personal Hygiene products needed for Nestucca Valley School District students Both for male and female students:

- Deodorant, - Shampoo and conditioner, - Toothpaste and toothbrushes.

Products purchased at the Dollar Store are perfectly acceptable. If you have any questions please call South County Good Neighbor Program: 503-965-6320.

Please check the monthly calendar in your bulletin this week for it has been updated.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

(All Souls Day)

Sunday November 2, 2025

My very last summer job in the seminary before I was ordained a transitional deacon was at St. John's Cemetery in Middle Village, New York. St. John's Cemetery is truly one of the most beautiful and ornate cemeteries in our city. It is a place of serenity and prayer where the faithful can pray for the souls of their loved ones. I worked in the office of the cemetery, mostly filing, computer data entry, answering phones, and helping with grave locations.

On my lunch break, I would walk the grounds of the cemetery. I was enamored with the beautiful gothic headstones, some of which were artistically adorned with saints and angels. Very recently, mausoleums were built for the interment of ashes. Almost every day during my lunch break walks, I would notice a woman visiting a particular grave. There was no headstone yet, and it was freshly dug at the time, so it was clear that this was a recent interment. She would come, by herself, at around the same time almost every day. On one occasion, she just began to weep bitterly at the grave.

My reaction as a seminarian and soon-to-be deacon and priest was to console. I went over to ask her if she was OK and if there was anything I could do. She told me that the grave was her husband's, who had just died a few weeks ago. They had just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Although he was sick, she told me that she never thought he would die. After weeks of us meeting at his grave and telling her that my summer job was coming to an end, she told me something very profound. She said, "Grief is not about the anger of losing someone in death, but gaining peace in the joy of eternal life."

Death can bring feelings of anger, particularly toward God. Questions arise about why this had to happen and all the circumstances around it. For us, though, as disciples of the risen Lord, death is not the end. The Lord has gone to prepare a place for us, that is, our Father's house. It is in our Father's house that we will bask in the joy of eternal life, which is promised to us by Jesus himself.

Today, we commemorate the souls of the faithful departed — known as All Souls' Day. How beautiful it is that this commemoration falls on a Sunday this year. It is on this day that we pray for those who have died but have not yet fully entered the heavenly kingdom. We pray for those souls which have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith. It is our prayers that will bring these souls into the kingdom of heaven. We gather on All Souls' Day to remember those loved ones who, although they are not with us physically, remain spiritually embedded in our minds and hearts.

We are reminded in the Book of Wisdom that the souls of the just are in the hands of God and no torment shall touch them. Although their death may have seemed shocking or unreal, they are at peace. It is that peace we are praying for today. It is the peace of their souls that we pray will come upon them as they make their way to the kingdom.

St. Paul, in his Letter to the Romans, speaks to us about the newness of life. We are united with Jesus in his resurrection. If we have died with Christ, we shall live with him for all eternity. This is our reality as witnesses of Christ, to hold on to in love and hope.

Jesus reminds us in the Gospel from St. John that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life. The Lord promises that to us. Jesus looks on us with eyes of mercy and love. It is through the infinite love of the Father that we who remain here on earth are given the strength and courage to continue the mission of spreading the good news by the example of our lives. As we continue to pray for our beloved dead, let us call on the Holy Spirit to comfort us in our grief that we may gain peace in the joy of eternal life. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.
