Sunday Family Connections

Jesus' teaching about divorce and re-marriage can be a challenging one for many people. The Church continues to uphold the strong and positive teaching of Jesus that God intends for a man and woman to make a lifelong commitment to one another in the Sacrament of Marriage. Many of us, however, know people whose marriage has not been a lifelong commitment. The example of Jesus teaches us that we are called to act with compassion and love in our relationships with all, and especially when people are hurting because of difficulties in their relationships. Most importantly, we remember that when marriages thrive, it is a sign of God's grace at work.

As you gather as a family, talk about what it means to make a promise or a commitment to someone. Offer examples of promises that are fairly easy to keep. Read today's Gospel, Mark 10:2-16. Talk about examples of promises and commitments that might be more difficult to honor, like the marriage commitment that Jesus is asked about in this Gospel. Talk about how we need God to help us honor our commitment to love and care for each other. Jesus teaches that we should be like children before God, trusting God's promise to care for us and asking for his help to keep our commitments to love and care for others. Conclude by praying together that God will give his grace to us that we may honor our commitments to one another. Pray together Saint Ignatius of Loyola's prayer, the Suscipe.

QR CODE FOR ONLINE GIVING

This is Sacred Heart Church QR code for online giving. You may start using it now to make it more convenient for everyone. Thank you for your generosity.

No Prayer is more powerful than the Mass, and there is no greater way to show our love for our dead than to have Masses said for them. This is the ancient teaching of the Church.

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention (anniversary, birthday, thanksgiving, answered prayers or for someone who has died, please contact the Parish Office and we will be happy to assist you in finding a date. The suggested stipend for a Mass is $10.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please Read!

Sacred Heart Church Faith Formation 2024-2025!!!

Faith formation classes are Wednesdays at 6 pm. RCIA classes Wednesdays 6 pm.

Homebound Ministry

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

Catholic Daughters

Socktober is coming! Court Sacred Heart, CDA, is once again sponsoring our annual sock drive. We will be collecting NEW socks for men, women, and children during September and October. The socks will be distributed to local charities and schools in the area. Just drop your socks in the clothes hamper in the vestibule of the church. With all of the back-to-school sales happening, now is a great time to purchase some socks for this worthwhile project. Thank you!

Eucharistic Miracles

You are invited to view this magnificent display of Eucharistic Miracle's that will be traveling to St Mary by the Sea in Rockaway Beach, Oregon October 26th and October 27th. Viewing hours will be Saturday, Oct 26th from 3pm till 7:15pm. Sunday, October 27th from 9:30 am until 12:30 pm. The presenters are Brain and Lynette Beyer of St Edward's Parish in Keizer, Oregon. This display is powerful and especially relevant during this year of Eucharistic revival. Hope you plan some time to view it either before or after the weekend masses. The Eucharistic Presence is real! Invite your family and friends.

We have started a women's prayer group at our parish for Fr Angelo. We will offer prayer for him in the form of Holy Hours at Adoration before the Holy Eucharist. We have adapted a simple structure by the Seven Sisters Apostolate, an international ministry. Want to learn more? Contact: Kathy Ellis 503-812-3413

Saint Mary by the Sea in Rockaway Beach will be having the World Wide Rosary at 11:00 am by the way-side, all are welcome.

The Carnival is around the corner!!! Mark your calendars October 19th at 4:00 pm, see you there.

The Hispanic Prayer Group has been modified, we will be meeting on October 11th in the chapel for worship out loud starting at 3:00 pm until 6:00 pm. Everyone is invited.

Spirituality of the Readings - XXVII Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 06, 2024

John Foley, SJ

Flesh of My Flesh

God did a wonderful job in creating things. He did it with a Big Bang, out of which came the universe and galaxies, and ... well, whatever else.

So, God is a great artist. Let's look.

For all eternity the three persons in God have loved each other so much that they are one. When God wanted to create a living being that could share in this inmost characteristic, he knew that they would share in what was called "deep love."

But unfortunately, in the sequence of creation, God made a mistake.

The First Reading tells us that he created the male first. Everyone knows that a man, left on his own, will likely be helpless. He needs company, needs partnership, correction, and sometimes just a lot of forgiveness. For almost all men, this means being with, or at least open to, the creature called woman.

But there were no creatures called women in existence. Since God is a relationship of three persons to the point of forming one being, maybe God thought that adding another creature would make the same thing possible for created beings.

There came the experiment: he took scoops of earth and made ...

... various wild animals and various birds of the air,
and he brought them to the man
to see what he would call them;
whatever the man called each of them would be its name. (First Reading)

But none of the wild animals proved to be the suitable partner for the man. So next, God made a move that was actually quite smart. Instead of trying to form a partner out of the earth for the man, as he had with the animals, he spread a deep sleep over the man and removed a rib from him.

He fashioned this into a woman.

This new gambit worked.

There was a great intimacy between the man and the woman. She was, as the man put it clumsily, "bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh!" The two were made out of the same stuff—how much closer can you get?

Marriage came next. As the First Reading puts it, "That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh."

As centuries went by, millennia really, there came a popular saying among husbands.

Women! You can't live with them and you can't live without them!

I cannot repeat here what women say, but it often starts out with, "MEN! ..." and a list of particulars follows. Sadly, divorce made its entrance. It had been around for centuries by the time the Pharisees came to Jesus with the following argument: "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss [his wife]" (Gospel).

Jesus reminded them sternly of why God had made both man and woman, not just the one, not just the other. He wanted them to share an intimate relationship that would be like the Trinity. He stated it this way:

"What God has joined together, no human must separate."

So, if today you find yourself divorced, or alone, or left without your beloved because of death, or if your mate and you do not get along, what can you do?

Do everything you can.

Like the rest of us, you are trying to mirror in your life the loving unity of the Trinity. Pray and do it as you are able.
