Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

SOCTOBER IS HERE!

Court Sacred Heart, CDA, is once again sponsoring a sock drive for our community. CDA is inviting parishioners to join us in donating NEW socks for men, women and children during the month of October. We will distribute the socks to local outreach programs and our schools. Please put your donated socks in the Laundry Basket in the vestibule of the church. Thank you for your support.

St. Joseph Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society has begun planning for their annual Christmas Bazaar to be held on December 6th. They are planning on the usual polish-dogs with sauerkraut and also their traditional cinnamon rolls. They are looking for someone who could make tamales to sell and they would cover the cost of ingredients. Also there will be a quilt raffle, plant sale, home baked goodies and jams and jellies.

Please be thinking about how you can contribute to the success of the bazaar, which helps support local charities. The St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the 2nd Monday of each month. Please consider attending.

Funeral Mass for John Lloyd

There will be a funeral Mass for John Lloyd on Friday October 17. The Rosary will start at 12:30 and Mass will be at 1pm.

Gratitude

Sunday's Scripture narrates two leprosy cures and two reactions to them.

Once, when I presided at a baptism, it was so easy to see the difference between my own old flesh and the soft clean skin of the infant girl who received the sacrament.

What would your reaction be if you were made fresh as a baby, after your skin had been that of a leper? You or I would probably open a website to sell soft-skin!

In the Gospel, Jesus heals ten lepers. He sends them off, saying, "Go show yourselves to the priests." They do, but on the way they find out that they are already cleansed! And, maybe the point of the scripture is that only one former leper—and it is a Samaritan—has eyes to see what this healing means.

Extolling God in a loud voice, this one comes back to Jesus. He drops to the ground giving thanks. The other nine? They must have been glad they had won the sweepstakes and had not thought about who had done the cure.

Jesus offers a soul-cure as well as a bodily one. Too bad those others missed it!

Second, in the First Reading, a leper, Naaman—also a Samaritan—is healed by Elisha the prophet. Naaman is told to plunge into the Jordan river seven times. He carries out this strange routine just as instructed. The result?

His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy.

Naaman rushed back to Elisha to gave copious thanks. He declared that there was no other god on earth but Israel's God! He offered a gift in thanksgiving. This was a very healthy and normal reaction: when a person is loved so much, their heart goes out to the giver and, without thinking, their soul wants to give gifts in return.

Strangely, Elisha refused the gift. We are not given an explicit reason, but probably he did not want earthly rewards for doing God's work. In response to the refusal, Naaman the leper made a dramatic pronouncement.

If you will not accept,
please let me, your servant,
have two mule-loads of earth,
for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the Lord. (2 Kings 5:17)

Mules and all, he will use Israeli earth to show his gratitude. It will be a sacrifice to the God of Israel, the God you and I worship.

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are based on this same response of gratitude. Especially in an exercise called the "Contemplation to Obtain God's love," people on retreat realize (over time) how deeply they are being loved. Their great desire is to give back to the one doing the loving, to give in return.

Notice that this implies an adult relationship, not a child's.

An infant is filled with need after need and tells you all about them. The nine cured lepers who did not say thanks might have been like that. But as maturity grows in a person he or she wants to give back instead of only receiving.

Yes, even to give back to God.

God has been seeking a mutual love relationship with each of us from the beginning of our lives. Have you ever sensed this? Have you felt gratitude? Have you ever taken time out to return love?

Could you take some time out this week?
