Sunday Family Connections

Today's Gospel might make us uncomfortable about our possessions. This discomfort offers us an opportunity to consider our possessions and our family's commitment to the poor. Material possessions are a necessity in our culture. Our use of these possessions and our attitude about their importance is our choice, however. It is a choice we can make with the awareness that our faith in Jesus commits us to show our care for the poor.

As you gather as a family, consider together these questions: Would it be possible to inventory our possessions? Are there things in our house that we no longer need or use? What might we do with these things? Read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:17-30. Talk about the warning about material possessions that Jesus gives in this Gospel. How does this make you feel? Choose an action that helps your family show its commitment to the poor. Conclude by praying together the Peace Prayer of Saint Francis.

This is Sacred Heart Church QR code for online giving. You may start using it now to make it more convenient for everyone. Thank you for your generosity.

No Prayer is more powerful than the Mass, and there is no greater way to show our love for our dead than to have Masses said for them.

This is the ancient teaching of the Church.

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention (anniversary, birthday, thanksgiving, answered prayers or for someone who has died, please contact the Parish Office and we will be happy to assist you in finding a date. The suggested stipend for a Mass is $10.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please Read!

Homebound Ministry

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

Catholic Daughters

Socktober is coming! Court Sacred Heart, CDA, is once again sponsoring our annual sock drive. We will be collecting NEW socks for men, women, and children during September and October. The socks will be distributed to local charities and schools in the area. Just drop your socks in the clothes hamper in the vestibule of the church. With all of the back-to-school sales happening, now is a great time to purchase some socks for this worthwhile project. Thank you!

Eucharistic Miracles

You are invited to view this magnificent display of Eucharistic Miracle's that will be traveling to St Mary by the Sea in Rockaway Beach, Oregon October 26th and October 27th. Viewing hours will be Saturday, Oct 26th from 3pm till 7:15pm. Sunday, October 27th from 9:30 am until 12:30 pm. The presenters are Brain and Lynette Beyer of St Edward's Parish in Keizer, Oregon. This display is powerful and especially relevant during this year of Eucharistic revival. Hope you plan some time to view it either before or after the weekend masses. The Eucharistic Presence is real! Invite your family and friends.

We have started a women's prayer group at our parish for Fr Angelo. We will offer prayer for him in the form of Holy Hours at Adoration before the Holy Eucharist. We have adapted a simple structure by the Seven Sisters Apostolate, an international ministry. Want to learn more? Contact: Kathy Ellis 503-812-3413

The Carnival is around the corner!!! Mark your calendars October 19th at 4:00 pm, see you there.

Spirituality of the Readings - XXVIII Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 13, 2024

John Foley, SJ

For the Love of God

Besides being a very interesting story, this Sunday's Gospel gives rich spiritual advice for us. To put it simply, God is worth more than anything else in our lives. Look at it.

Our story is about a rich young man in the Gospel. Whoever he was, "he had many possessions." He does seem to have had a good heart, some humility, and a positive opinion about Jesus.

Without warning he runs up to Jesus, actually runs, kneels down before him, and asks this question: "good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

He must have impressed Jesus. Yet Jesus gives the man a seemingly incongruous reply. "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone."

How in the world does this answer fit the question? Of course, one interpretation would be that it does not, that it is the result of an odd editing of the story at a later time. But I want to suggest a much simpler explanation.

Since Jesus already saw the seeds of faith in this man, he was trying to grow that faith. Following would be the logic of Jesus' response: (1) only God is (fully) good. (2) yet you have called me good. (3) Maybe you are sensing the Godliness in me.

We are not told of a response from the man, but we see Jesus going on to take him through the essentials.

Look, he says, you know about the commandments, don't you, and he names six of them. He expects that the man will say yes, at which point he can lead him further in the love of God.

The man gives a wonderful answer: "teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." We know that Jesus' heart was warmed by this answer because of the next remarkable line of the Gospel:

Jesus, looking at him, loved him.

Keep in mind that Mark's is the most terse of the four Gospels, so this startling sentence reveals much about the scene. Jesus is not just announcing truths to someone or other, he is carefully building faith in someone he has come to love.

So he tells the rich young man, with care, what the next step is. You are lacking in one thing.

Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me. (Gospel)

But, perhaps like you and me, the rich young man was not ready to go so far. "At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions."

So much for this Gospel incident. We presume that Jesus watched the poor rich man's exit, and hoped for another chance at mending him.

Ditto about you and me!
