Sunday Family Connections

In the daily routine of family life, power struggles seem unavoidable. Whenever two or more people live together, there will be occasions of disagreement and attempts to exert influence over each other. Today's Gospel can be an invitation to consider how authority is exercised in your household. There is a temptation to exercise our authority in ways that show our power over others. Especially when conflicts emerge, many of us rely upon the power we believe our role gives to us. Jesus teaches us that there is a more persuasive form of leadership. In these daily challenges we have the opportunity to practice and teach the kind of service and leadership Jesus modeled for us in his ministry and in his passion and death.

As you gather as a family, invite family members to participate in a role play in which family roles are reversed. For example, you might assign children the role of parents putting their children to bed with parents acting like the children. Or you may have them role play parents asking for cooperation from children to clean up the family room. When the role play is finished, ask if it was an accurate picture of how this situation usually plays out in your household. Does everyone cooperate when asked? What happens when someone doesn't cooperate? How are the conflicts that emerge resolved? Observe that conflicts based on power struggles in situations such as these seem unavoidable in family life. In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches how Christians are to show their authority over others. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:35-45. After reading the Gospel, talk with your family about Jesus' unique message to his disciples about how they are to exercise authority. Talk about ways in which you might apply Jesus' words in your family life. Conclude by praying we may receive honor in God's eyes by learning to serve others in love. Pray together the Peace Prayer of Saint Francis.

This is Sacred Heart Church QR code for online giving. You may start using it now to make it more convenient for everyone. Thank you for your generosity.

No Prayer is more powerful than the Mass, and there is no greater way to show our love for our dead than to have Masses said for them. This is the ancient teaching of the Church.

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention (anniversary, birthday, thanksgiving, answered prayers or for someone who has died, please contact the Parish Office and we will be happy to assist you in finding a date. The suggested stipend for a Mass is $10.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please Read!

Homebound Ministry

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

Catholic Daughters

Socktober is coming! Court Sacred Heart, CDA, is once again sponsoring our annual sock drive. We will be collecting NEW socks for men, women, and children during September and October. The socks will be distributed to local charities and schools in the area. Just drop your socks in the clothes hamper in the vestibule of the church. With all of the back-to-school sales happening, now is a great time to purchase some socks for this worthwhile project. Thank you!

Eucharistic Miracles

You are invited to view this magnificent display of Eucharistic Miracle's that will be traveling to St Mary by the Sea in Rockaway Beach, Oregon October 26th and October 27th. Viewing hours will be Saturday, Oct 26th from 3pm till 7:15pm. Sunday, October 27th from 9:30 am until 12:30 pm. The presenters are Brain and Lynette Beyer of St Edward's Parish in Keizer, Oregon. This display is powerful and especially relevant during this year of Eucharistic revival. Hope you plan some time to view it either before or after the weekend masses. The Eucharistic Presence is real! Invite your family and friends.

We have started a women's prayer group at our parish to pray for our Priest. We will offer prayer for him in the form of Holy Hours at Adoration before the Holy Eucharist. We have adapted a simple structure by the Seven Sisters Apostolate, an international ministry. Want to learn more? Contact: Kathy Ellis 503-812-3413.

Spirituality of the Readings - XXIX Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 20, 2024

John Foley, SJ

Ask?

Often we think of God as someone who helps us get everything we need. The great parent in the sky.

The Responsorial Psalm says it well: "See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, to deliver them from death." (Responsorial Psalm)

If so, then James and John are right to say the following to their teacher: "We want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."

They rush up to Jesus (Gospel). with their petition. This seems a bit blunt, doesn't it, like children making deals. Jesus replies mildly, "What do you wish me to do for you?"

"Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Is this a good request? Or maybe it is more a demand. And it comes immediately after—and I mean in the very next line—after he has predicted the passion. He says,

The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and hand him over to the Gentiles who will mock him, spit upon him, scourge him, and put him to death, but after three days he will rise. (Mark 10:33-34).

Hearing this, the apostles do what you and I are tempted to do when we hear bad news. They change the subject!

Jesus responds that they too must drink the cup that he will drink, or in other words, also must undergo pain.

He himself begged God to take the cup of suffering away, and when he was asking, he used the term, "Abba," a familiar form of "father," (Mark 14:36). And in another place, during the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with fervent cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission (Hebrews 5:7).

He was heard?

What? God heard these fiery prayers and then sat by idly while the passion and cruel death went right along?

Such observations put us directly in front of the terrible question, the one that has plagued humankind since the beginning. Why does a trustworthy, loving, parental God allow suffering and catastrophe even when he has heard in detail the prayers of those about to be afflicted?

Loss, death and suffering certainly seem to be the worst that could happen to a human being. Maybe so, but still worse would be loss of love's groundwork, which is the never-ending relation to God.

If [my servant] gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the Lord shall be accomplished through him. Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days. (First Reading)

Does suffering stretch and widen all human souls, even that of the Servant of God, Jesus? He calls it "the greatest love" there is: i.e., knowing God, acting on behalf of others, letting in that which is greater than death or life: love.

God's love stays even when life does not.

If this is true, then God's love is parental after all. He loves us through the worst in order to show what the best really is.
