Peter declares that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus teaches that those who would follow him must take up his or her cross.

Peter had expectations about what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah, the Christ. Jesus was indeed the Messiah, but his life and death would show a different understanding of what it means to be the Messiah. We, too, have expectations of God and our own ideas about what we think God ought to be doing in our world. Like Peter, however, we may risk limiting our image of God by thinking only in human ways. God's plan is always more that we can ever imagine.

As you gather as a family, talk about what we expect God to be doing in our world and in our family life. Then read today's Gospel, Mark 8:31-35. Why do you think Peter was so upset by what Jesus was saying? Notice how Jesus reprimands Peter. Do we sometimes forget to let God be God for us? That is, do we sometimes get discouraged because God doesn't act in our world in the ways that we expect? Pray together that we will remember that God is always working for the world's salvation in ways that are beyond our imagination. Conclude by praying together today's psalm, Psalm 116.

Spirituality of the Readings - XXIV Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 15, 2024

John Foley, SJ

Suffer? Be Killed?

The simple Gospel story this Sunday is actually one of the great ones in the New Testament. Why? Let's look.

First, Jesus was much more than just one of the great heroes from the past—John the Baptist, Elijah, the prophets, etc. Naturally, people were treating him as if he were one of these, so he asks the disciples what they think.

Peter responds. "You are the Christ." A fabulous recognition.

To acknowledge this, Jesus, gave to Simon the name "Peter," or "Rock." Under this designation, Peter had proclaimed a turning point for believers, a crucial depth that underlies all Christianity. He saw that Jesus was not just a buddy or a healer, he was the long-awaited Messiah.

This made Jesus able to tell them more about what this answer (the Christ) actually meant. He said, boldly, "the Son of Man must suffer greatly . . . and be killed, and rise after three days." (Gospel)

What?

This was the very last thought the apostles could have had about the Messiah. "Suffer? Be killed"? No, no!"

Second, look at the intense drama that followed. The same apostle who had just recognized and detailed Jesus as the Christ we see now in complete rebellion.

"This will never happen to you, master, we will never allow it!"

Now Jesus gives him still another name. "Satan"! What a contradiction! Jesus flares out with anguish and frustration. "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Why so harsh a response?

For an answer, check out the temptations in the desert (Mt 4:1-11). There the devil's enticements had the same point that Peter's does now. Something like this:

Save yourself. Do not give up your life for others. Since you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread. Show your power. Be the Christ. You keep talking about your heavenly Father: doesn't he want you to carry out your mission instead of suffering and being killed? (cf. Mt 4:2)

Do you and I ever listen to such a temptation?—when do we not?

The apostles hear the temptation. When Christ finally undergoes his fate, to "suffer greatly and be killed," they actually run away! It will take time for them to understand, just as it does for you and me.

But terrible suffering had been in the scriptural tradition for a long time. Read about the "Suffering Servant" in the First Reading:

I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard. . . . See, the Lord God is my help; who will prove me wrong? (Isa 50:6)

Whichever name he used for Simon Peter, Rock or Satan, Jesus was not being careless or intemperate. The Satan-like Simon was blindly rejecting just what Jesus must have been struggling with most: that he had to suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes,

and be killed,
and rise after three days.

Who wouldn't object to such a plan? But this was Jesus' his true mission, and Simon Peter had named it and then swept it aside.

Which do you or I choose?
