Sunday Family Connections

Conversations such as the one described in today's Gospel are common in family life. Perhaps these examples are familiar: "I should get the first piece of cake because I am the youngest;" "I did the dishes yesterday; someone else should do them today." How might we respond if Jesus asked about our family arguments? What would Jesus say to us in reply? All of us need the reminder found in today's Gospel: To be great in God's Kingdom is to be the servant of all.

As you gather as a family, recall a recent family argument about household chores or an example of bickering among family members. Talk about what was at issue in the argument. Together imagine that Jesus entered the room just as the argument ended. What would you tell Jesus your argument was about? What might Jesus say in reply? Read together today's Gospel, Mark 9:30-37. How was your family argument like the argument among Jesus' disciples? What might your family do to remember that those who are great in God's kingdom are those who willingly serve others? Pray together that your family life will reflect your commitment to serve one another with love. Pray Saint Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity.

This is Sacred Heart Church QR code for online giving. You may start using it now to make it more convenient for everyone. Thank you for your generosity.

No Prayer is more powerful than the Mass, and there is no greater way to show our love for our dead than to have Masses said for them. This is the ancient teaching of the Church.

If you would like to have a Mass said for a particular intention (anniversary, birthday, thanksgiving, answered prayers or for someone who has died, please contact the Parish Office and we will be happy to assist you in finding a date. The suggested stipend for a Mass is $10.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please Read!

Sacred Heart Church Faith Formation 2024-2025!!!

Faith formation classes are Wednesdays at 6 pm. RCIA classes Wednesdays 6 pm.

Homebound Ministry

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

Catholic Daughters

Socktober is coming! Court Sacred Heart, CDA, is once again sponsoring our annual sock drive. We will be collecting NEW socks for men, women, and children during September and October. The socks will be distributed to local charities and schools in the area. Just drop your socks in the clothes hamper in the vestibule of the church. With all of the back-to-school sales happening, now is a great time to purchase some socks for this worthwhile project. Thank you!

It's getting closer . . . The Catholic Daughters Rummage Sale is coming on October 4 and 5! We will be collecting donations Monday Sept. 30 through Wednesday Oct. 2 from 9am to 5pm in our parish hall. We appreciate your donations, but, Please - no clothes, shoes, large exercise equipment, large TV's, cribs, car seats, or electronics.

Eucharistic Miracles

You are invited to view this magnificent display of Eucharistic Miracle's that will be traveling to St Mary by the Sea in Rockaway Beach, Oregon October 26th and October 27th. Viewing hours will be Saturday, Oct 26th from 3pm till 7:15pm. Sunday, October 27th from 9:30 am until 12:30 pm. The presenters are Brain and Lynette Beyer of St Edward's Parish in Keizer, Oregon. This display is powerful and especially relevant during this year of Eucharistic revival. Hope you plan some time to view it either before or after the weekend masses. The Eucharistic Presence is real! Invite your family and friends.

Spirituality of the Readings - XXV Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 22, 2024

John Foley, SJ

Childish Behavior

-For the past Sundays Jesus has been shocking the disciples by showing himself as the "The Just One," as in today's First Reading:

He is telling them and us the most intimate fact of his life.

First, the setup. People known as "the wicked" practiced what we could call a version of childish self-interest. They say the equivalent of the following:

Look at this "righteous one." He thinks he is so wonderful. Let's use his high opinion of himself and "test it." Let us see how revilement and torture will affect him. Let us see what a slow death will do to someone supposedly so patient and gentle.

The First Reading quotes these "evil ones" as saying, sarcastically, doesn't this Just One claim that "God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes"? We'll see.

So, they practice mockery and cruelty, all based on self-deception.

Mockery: "If he says he is so wonderful, if he has God on his side, surely he will pass our little test. We are just conducting an 'interesting experiment'."

Translation: he's on the wrong side, kill him.

Cruelty: "He thinks he is so holy. We will give him torture, revilement, and a shameful death. This is just reasonable research, to see how he will react."

Translation: holiness is all a sham, a way for people to get what they want. Well, we want him dead.

Self-deception: we do not need this God stuff. We base our lives in what is real.

Translation: we are more important than God and this Jesus H. Christ. Self-interest will always win.

All these are seductively false. No human being can become truly and freely human unless he or she puts God in first place, valuing everything else in relation to God's love—even power, even wealth, and especially pride.

The disciples, out of confusion, engage in a long argument about which of them is the greatest! It is as if they are children fighting for the best toys.

Instead of this, Jesus says in the Gospel that, in fact, the Son of God was going to be condemned to this shaming torture, the one that the wicked had planned, and would be killed. It would look exactly as if God did not care.

"This is what I am going to do," he says. I will be saying "I love you," to my Father. But I will do it by not resisting insults and humiliating death, because I love God above these things. And I love the world, and everything in it.

And I love you, with the fullness and warmth and generosity of God's everlasting love.

Even if it is hard for us to believe, God's promise is that good can emerge out of suffering and death. Ultimately it seems that good can come only from these.

So, in the end, shocking or not, God does defend us and deliver us from the hand of our foes!
